Notice of Discharge of Notice of Intended Prosecution and Request for Clarification

Dear Mr RevenueCollectionPig,

I write with reference to your Notice of Intended Prosecution dated 1st January 2019.

I must admit that I do not understand the alleged offence and I am requesting clarification of a few points.

I note that you are contemplating proceedings against the driver of a motor vehicle identified as a Rolls Royce Silver Ghost. While, I do own a private automobile which fits that description, it is not a motor vehicle as defined in section 185(c) of the Road Traffic Act 1988 as "a mechanically propelled vehicle intended or adapted for use on roads" since the use of the indefinite article "a" at the beginning of the sentence means that it is not necessarily a vehicle, in the same way that an apple might be defined as "a round, red fruit", plums and cherries share the same attributes but they are not apples, nor are they different types of apple.

Furthermore, having consulted a number of legal dictionaries I find that the definition of a driver is one who is engaged in commerce on the road. For example Black's Law Dictionary defines a driver as: "One employed in conducting a coach, carriage, wagon, or other vehicle, with horse, mules, or other animals, or a bicycle, tricycle, or motor car, though not a street railroad car."

And since I have never, ever engaged in commerce upon the road it appears that I am not a driver and I have never engaged in the practice of driving.

1. Can a man or woman who is not driving a vehicle be charged with the alleged offence?

The alleged offence apparently took place at 16:56 on 25 December 2018 at UPPER THAMES STREET BY STEW LANE. It is quite possible that I was travelling in my private automobile at that time, and on that day but I am not familiar with UPPER THAMES STREET BY STEW LANE so can neither confirm nor deny my location. The enclosed photocopied pictures do bear a striking resemblance to my private automobile but I have not been presented with any material facts or evidence that it is the same.

2. Could you provide the sworn testimony of the complainant and witnesses who have firsthand knowledge of the matter?

As an honourable man I am distressed at the thought that I may have inadvertently caused harm or loss to someone and would naturally wish to make redress or compensate any loss. However, I have carefully studied the “photographic evidence” but yet it fails to display any evidence of injury, loss, damage to property or a breach of the peace.

3. Could you provide the name of the injured party and his or her sworn testimony detailing the nature of the tort?

Please provide satisfactory answers to these three questions with substance and accompanying documentation and proofs in Affidavit format sworn under oath or attestation, under penalty of perjury and upon your full commercial liability that the facts contained therein are true, correct, complete and not misleading.

If I do not receive such a response conforming to the above criteria within seven (7) days of the date of this letter, it will be deemed a tacit agreement by your acquiescence that no offence took place and that all parties to mean you and your principal or other parties abandon all demands upon me.

I must also decline your offer to complete the form on the reverse of the Notice of Intended Prosecution as I am not willing to provide consent or evidence for use in any subsequent prosecution of this alleged offence. Also, since the paragraphs instructing me to complete the form both appear within boxes upon the face of the document then the ‘Four Corners’ rule applies and thus may be disregarded without dishonour.

Sincerely without malice, ill will, vexation or frivolity
