Introduction

The world is a very different place than that which you have been told about, and you are not who you think you are either. Everything that you have been taught to believe in as true turns out to be a lie and the biggest lie of them all, is who you really are. The lies and indoctrination began early, when you were too young to discern between truth and lie, at state schools where the programming is hammered home with repetition and pressure to faithfully regurgitate the state approved correct answers on homework and exams. The fraudulent view of reality is cemented into place with the use of technological witchcraft, an insidious machine that uses dancing lights and sound to simultaneously hypnotise you into a stupor and feed you an alternate version of reality so that you accept it as real.

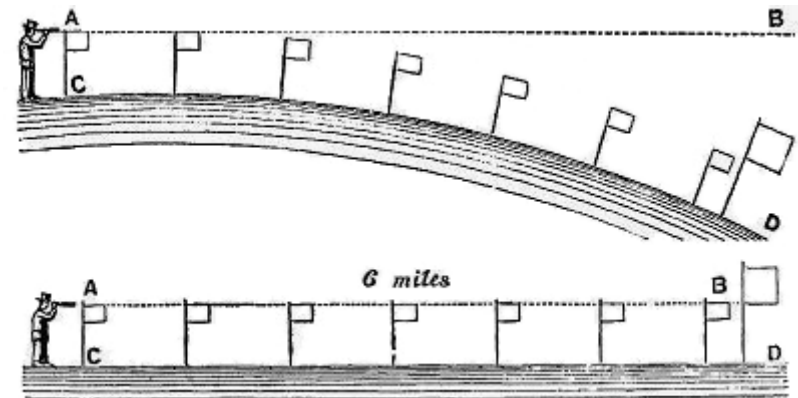

This is why the first data point in this booklet is that the Earth is Flat, and it is most certainly flat, motionless and at the centre of everything. It is included here so that you get some inkling of the extent to which you have been lied to, you may also recognise your own cognitive dissonance as your mind tries to dismiss the truth as ridiculous and fight for the lie, but in the end you will realise that if a cunning and thoroughly wicked group of “people” have been able to convince the entire world that we are all just insignificant microbes, clinging to the surface of a spinning ball hurtling through infinite space, then they are capable of lying to us about anything (And everything)

There will be some who would consider the words herein as ‘Hate Speech’, however, the truth is never hate speech, it might be considered unflattering to a certain portion of the population but the truth is the truth and quite often, those who are crying ‘Hate Speech’ only portray themselves as victims to draw attention away from the real victims.

The Earth is flat

Yes, yes it is, but then, you already knew that... You have already stood on a beach and seen the perfectly flat horizon. Your keen senses have told you that you’re not spinning at 1000 miles an hour or hurtling around the sun at 66,600 mph while being dragged by it at 400,000 mph. You’ve seen the sun’s rays coming down at angles and subconsciously you know that the Sun cannot be that far away, just as the Moon cannot be when it lights up the clouds around it but not those further away. So let’s look at some undeniable proofs that you have been lied to and why.

The very first proof that was put forward for the spherical Earth was the observation made 500 years ago that a ship sailing away from you disappears hull first and then finally the mast so it must be going over the curve of the Earth, however, one can watch the same ship disappear “over the curvature” but then with a pair of binoculars the ship comes back into view, continue to watch it through the binoculars until the ship appears to round the curve again and it reappears when a telescope or a camera with a powerful zoom lens is used.

There is no curvature that can be detected and anyone can go out armed with the curvature calculation of eight inches multiplied by the distance squared and observe things that they should not be able to see on a spherical Earth.

One of the most powerful proofs that we live on a flat motionless plane is the Gyroscope. A gyroscope has two very interesting properties, rigidity in space and precession. When a gyroscope is spun up to speed, it remains rigid in its orientation with respect to space and not the Earth, and will resist attempts to change it, even if you spin it up at 45 degrees to the ground it will stay at that angle regardless of the earth or gravity. So when a gyroscope is used as an artificial horizon in an aircraft, as the aircraft rounds the curvature of the earth then the artificial horizon should appear to roll backwards, but of course, it never does.

Supporters of the spherical earth will say that the earth's gravity will correct the gyroscope so that the artificial horizon remains level with the ground at its location, however this is where the gyroscope's other peculiar property comes in. Precession is the strange effect where if a force is applied to a spinning gyroscope the effect will be seen 90 degrees away from the force, so since the so-called force of gravity is only ever in one direction the effect would appear 90 degrees away from 'down' and so render the gyroscope unusable as an artificial horizon. Most of us do not have access to an aircraft with which to test these effects, however, anyone can purchase a high precision electric powered gyroscope, set it spinning and carefully mark its position. If the earth were a spinning globe then after 6 hours the earth should have rotated through a full 90 degrees but you will find that the gyroscope will not have moved at all.

The biggest stumbling block that most face when considering the idea of a flat, motionless earth is the supposed preponderance of photographic evidence from space. The only problem is that no matter how hard you search for an actual photograph of earth from space you will only find one, supposedly taken from Apollo 17 however, the footage obtained by the makers of the documentary "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Moon" showing the crew of Apollo 11 faking a photograph of earth throws its authenticity into doubt. Also the continent of Africa that is prominently featured in this image, conforms to the Mercator map projection, which distorts the true size and shape of the continents so the map can be better used as a navigational aid. If this photograph were a true representation of the earth then the continents would conform to the Peter's projection map which is generally acknowledged to be a more accurate rendering of what the earth's continents actually look like.

All the other images of earth are computer generated imagery and close inspection reveals the image manipulation of cloned sections of clouds, subliminal messages and the bounding boxes of inserted elements. NASA employee Rob Simmon, who is responsible for the "Blue Marble" image explained how he created the image from data, using artistic licence to render the image as he believes it should look, not as it actually is, and when one examines all of the images of earth it becomes apparent that we are looking at artist renditions from many different artists.

There are no satellites above us, nor is there a need for them. In the 1930's, the BBC were broadcasting the Empire Service from England to every country in its commonwealth, including Canada and Australia, without the aid of satellites or repeater stations. GPS is an updated form of radio triangulation that has been around since WWII and so-called satellite imagery are photographs from high altitude aircraft. All the video "evidence" from the Space Shuttle to the International Space Station are all achieved with a combination of massive water tanks, to simulate space walks, Zero-G aircraft and Diamagnetic levitation chambers as well as Hollywood fakery to give the impression of weightlessness.

Space is no more than a science fiction concept.

When you combine the spherical earth theory with the theory of evolution and big bang theory, you are left with a belief system that teaches that you are a tiny microbe, that evolved from ocean slime through the accidental interaction of blind forces and chemistry, clinging to a speck of dust haphazardly hurtling through an infinite void of nothingness, with no purpose or meaning. This worldview does not include a Creator, however, when one researches the true shape and nature of our earth it inevitably leads to the same conclusions; we live in a created place, we are the chief of its creations and, most importantly, there is a Creator.

Once you realise there is a supreme being who created all that is, then it cannot fail to occur to you that there is a reason that we were created, so we had better find out who the Creator is, what he wants and do whatever it is he wants us to do.

It turns out that the Creator left us some very specific instructions on how to live in the realm that he created for us.

Who are you really?

The identity of the peoples of the world have been hidden and obscured with artificial divisions of skin colour, religion and geography. Despite everything you have been taught and everything you think you know about yourself, you are NOT a descendant of Africans.

You are a Negro, and Negroes are very different to Africans.

The dictionary definition of Negro shown above employs the deceptive 'word magic' that is used by your enemies to hide the truth in plain sight. You are described as a member of the dominant group of mankind in Africa, which is to say, examples of the dominant group of mankind who happen to be in Africa rather than, as would be generally assumed, the dominant group in Africa alone. The definition of adjective 'Negroid' further refines the designation to the people south of the Sahara desert.

Africans have a very different skull shape and skeletal structure, and unlike you, Africans cannot grow hair in the same way that you can, their men cannot grow beards, their women cannot grow afros, they are also very different in the way they move, act and think, and they hate you just as much as all the other nations of people.

An African

A Negro

Africans are the descendants of Noah's son Ham in the Book of Remembrance (The so-called Old Testament) which tells that they were given the hot regions of the then known earth, Egypt, Libya, Ethiopia and the land of Canaan (Israel/Palestine today). You are a descendant of Shem, whose children were allotted the temperate regions (not too hot and not too cold) and who were later promised and inhabited the land of Canaan.

You are the true Semite. You are one of the nation of clever, industrious people that have been persecuted, enslaved and forced to use their talents to build the civilisations of others.

You are the one of the people chosen by the Most High Creator of the Universe as his special people, for whom the whole earth was created. You are not some poor ape-descended inferior, who is only able to survive in the 'civilised' world by the beneficence of white superiors, you are the source of civilisation, yours are the inventions that other nations exploit and take credit for, yours is the culture that others disparage and ridicule yet copy and call their own, yours are the features that other nations scorn yet lie out under a sun that is often dangerous to them, and get expensive plastic surgery to emulate.

You are what this world is all about, and right at this very moment there are a people who are posing as you, in the land that was promised to you and enjoying the advantages and benefits of pretending to be you.

Jews not Judites, Israelis not Israelites

These so-called Jews have no relation to the biblical Israelites, at no time in the past did they live in the land known today as Israel and their behaviour and history does not match that of the Children of Israel. These are the "Serpent People" from the ancient land of Khazaria, who converted to a religion which they called Judaism (a mix of Talmudism and Paganism) and in the guise of Israelites they have usurped the land promised to your fathers and receive billions from people around the world who believe they will be blessed for blessing them. Those who speak against these deceivers are labelled as Anti-Semitic even though they themselves are not semites and are guilty more than any other people of anti-semitic behaviour against the true semites.

Where do you come from?

Your ancestors were the biblical Israelites, the children of Jacob who trace their lineage through Isaac and Abraham all the way back to Adam. Your history is the most well-known of all.

Your ancestors lived in the land of Canaan, which is currently known as Israel/Palestine in the region known as the 'Middle East' though it has never been defined what it is in the middle of, or to the east of.

Before the Egyptian captivity, Zarah, the second son of Judah, and his children, left their brethren and set out with a group of Danites to explore the world. Some would be the first to push further into the wilderness of the African continent, as can be seen in the eighteenth century map below, what we know as the Sahara Desert is actually the Kingdom of Sarra (Zarah) or the Desert.

Darda, the grandson of Zarah, travelled through southern Turkey to a region now called the Dardanelles, and his children founded the famed city of Troy. Other branches of this royal bloodline went on to populate Greece, Italy, Spain, Ireland and Scotland.

In 70 AD., the Romans attacked Jerusalem and about a million black Hebrew Israelites escaped into the African Continent, to hide among the similar looking Africans. The Africans did not welcome the refugees, so the Israelites moved across the top of the Sahara and then down into the wilderness of western and southern African. These were the people who were sold into slavery by the Africans and Arabs to the Europeans and taken to the Americas, however, there were Israelites already in North America, and these Aboriginal Americans were in fact Hebrews who had been trading with their brethren in Jerusalem since the days of Solomon.

Other 'slaves' were transported to the Americas and the West Indies from the black inhabitants of Europe, Ireland, Scotland and England. Documentary evidence of this unspoken truth is sparse due to intentional suppression, any visual evidence that the black man was anything other than a slave or a savage was destroyed or whitewashed, however, since slaves were not permitted to read, several important writings have survived which reveal the truth of the matter, such as this 1751 essay by Benjamin Franklin:

And since Detachments of English from Britain sent to America, will have their Places at Home so soon supply'd and increase so largely here; why should the Palatine Boors be suffered to swarm into our Settlements, and by herding together establish their Language and Manners to the Exclusion of ours? Why should Pennsylvania, founded by the English, become a Colony of Aliens, who will shortly be so numerous as to Germanize us instead of our Anglifying them, and will never adopt our Language or Customs, any more than they can acquire our Complexion.

24. Which leads me to add one Remark: That the Number of purely white People in the World is proportionably very small. All Africa is black or tawny. Asia chiefly tawny. America (exclusive of the new Comers) wholly so. And in Europe, the Spaniards, Italians, French, Russians and Swedes, are generally of what we call a swarthy Complexion; as are the Germans also, the Saxons only excepted, who with the English, make the principal Body of White People on the Face of the Earth. I could wish their Numbers were increased. And while we are, as I may call it, Scouring our Planet, by clearing America of Woods, and so making this Side of our Globe reflect a brighter Light to the Eyes of Inhabitants in Mars or Venus, why should we in the Sight of Superior Beings, darken its People? why increase the Sons of Africa, by Planting them in America, where we have so fair an Opportunity, by excluding all Blacks and Tawneys, of increasing the lovely White and Red? But perhaps I am partial to the Complexion of my Country, for such Kind of Partiality is natural to Mankind.

Observations Concerning the Increase of Mankind Benjamin Franklin 1751

According to Franklin, in 1751 there were very few white people in the world, and he was concerned over the huge numbers of Negroes arriving from Europe. It becomes obvious that African-Americans are not African at all, but descendants of the Hebrew Israelites who had settled in Sub-Saharan Africa, Britain and Europe.

What is your history?

Those that do not know their history are doomed to repeat it, so by stripping you of your identity and history you fall prey to the same tricks, traps and snares that our enemies have always used on us.

Even though you have been told over and over that you have no history prior to slavery, it turns out that your history is the most well-known and well-loved story of them all. The book that contains your history, your law and instructions, just for you on how to deal with any situation that you may encounter, just happens to be the most popular, most widely read book of all time.

The Book of Remembrance is a book written by your ancestors, for and about you, your descendants and no-one else.

Malachi 3:16 “Then they that feared the Most High spake often one to another: and the Most High hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Most High, and that thought upon his name.”

The Book of Remembrance is more commonly known as the ‘Old Testament’ because it was renamed by Romans who sought to attach the holy book of their new religion ‘Christianity’ to our book in the hope that by calling it ‘The New Testament’ it would be seen as one complete and updated work, but since the word ‘Testament’ means ‘Statement of Truth’, try entering a ‘New’ statement of truth that contradicts the old one in a murder trial and see if it is taken seriously.

The Book of Remembrance details your lineage from Adam to the scattering of the Israelites, but from that point onwards all of world history has been about your ancestors and the struggle against their enemies. European history’s so-called “Dark Ages” were in fact the thousand years of black rule and the Renaissance, the rebirth of white dominion. The Thirty Years War and Hundred Years War were in fact periods of ethnic cleansing to the point where there are no remaining indigenous black people left in Europe.

Great Britain was founded by a black Hebrew Israelite and Trojan prince named Britto or Brutus in 1103 BC. After defeating the red-haired giants who lived there, he named the land “Britannia” which in Hebrew means “Land of the Covenant”, the covenant between the Most High and the Children of Israel. The land of Ireland, Iberland or Hibernia (which means land of the Hebrews) also contained Zarah’s children. Scotland was populated with both descendants of Zarah and that of his brother, Pharez. When the black Hebrew Israelite King James VI & I took the throne of England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales and France, he reunited all the tribes of Judah into a united kingdom, fulfilling the prophesy given to Abraham that his seed would have a great nation. Britain, the land of the covenant, is the only country to have ever had the prefix “Great”.

This “New Jerusalem” was short lived however, as agents of the Vatican saw to it that James’ grandson Charles II was beheaded and an Ashkenazi Jew-ish bloodline was placed on the throne, and Oliver Cromwell presided over the most savage ethnic cleansing of the indigenous black populations throughout the British Isles. Hundreds of thousands of Black Irish, Scots and English males were castrated, murdered or transported to the West Indies or the Americas, while the women who remained were raped until the native populations had been bred out to resemble their pale-skinned, red haired conquerors.

The Anglicisation of the Irish People

Again, documentary evidence of this genocide is scant however, in his book: "Whence the Black Irish of Jamaica?", Joseph J. Williams, a Reverend living in Jamaica, was puzzled why it was that the Jamaican Negroes were unlike all other Negro types that he had seen and that many of them had pure Irish names. Normally slaves took on the names of their owners, but, no such names appeared among the land-owners in the 1670 survey, but he was able to find the same names in the English records of the campaign against the Irish, by Oliver Cromwell, and the subsequent deportations of large numbers of Irish bondmen and bondmaids to the West Indies.

The English Civil War was a race war which pitted Black Britons against Germanic Britons. The "Glorious Revolution" against James II had the Dutch and Germanic British fighting against Black British, and the "Jacobite Wars" also set the pale-skinned, red haired Germanic British in opposition to the Black British who wanted the return of a Black monarchy (the House of Stuart). The result of these race wars was that England suffered a 3.7% loss of population, Scotland a loss of 6%, and Ireland lost a staggering 41% of its population.

Prior to the takeover, the black tribes of Judah and the pale-skinned Anglo-Saxon tribes lived in relative harmony. The name Anglo-Saxon derives from the "angelic sons of Isaac" and identifies them as children of Esau and the wicked seed of the fallen angels and very different to the earlier Saxons, or "Isaac's sons", the children of Esau's brother, Jacob, who also came to Britain from the same region of Germany. Once the sons of Esau had successfully overthrown the sons of Jacob, the land was no longer the great land of the covenant but became England, or Angle-land or Angel-land, the land of the fallen angels.

The Germanic Saxe-Coburg-Gotha-Battenburg Family

All evidence of their genocidal atrocities were concealed and Thomas Cromwell set about erasing all evidence of a Negro presence in the British Isles by obliterating 97% of the artworks then in existence. Paintings were destroyed or painted over. Statues were smashed.

Wood carvings were burned. Manuscripts were shredded. At the same time, counterfeit artwork was created depicting themselves as the now vanished Black people.

On a personal note, I am of the first generation of Negroes, born in Britain, of West Indian parents from Barbados and St. Lucia who arrived here in the 1960's. I have memories of hearing my parents describing how they were treated by white people when they first arrived in England, encountering signs on boarding houses which read:

"No Blacks, No Dogs, No Irish"

I never made the connection between my father's strangely Irish sounding Barbadian accent, my own pure Irish family name or my mother's Scottish/French family name and how it was that Irish people seemed to be regarded as lowly as Black people.

I grew up feeling like a (mostly unwelcome) stranger in a strange land to which I did not belong, but rather oddly proud of being born in this green and pleasant land. Now it makes perfect sense to me that I am actually a returnee to lands that my Scottish and Irish ancestors were exiled from.

Why is this important?

No matter how you regard your life, whether good or bad, the plain fact is that you are currently being held captive in the lands of your enemies, and we are at war!

The Book of Remembrance tells of how, because of the disobedience of our forefathers, the Most High brought a fierce enemy against us who would enslave and afflict us for four hundred years. Deuteronomy, chapter 28, describes how we would be taken into slavery again but this time by ship, and the tribe of Judah would be scattered throughout the earth. The curses spoken of in Deuteronomy, precisely parallel the trials and tribulations of the enslaved Negroes in the Americas and West Indies as well as those who remained in West Africa under colonialism, so there can be no doubt who the prophesy is referring to.

Once in captivity, overt chattel slavery was replaced with a more efficient and insidious form of economic and psychological slavery, where the slaves believe they are free yet never quite achieve independence and self-determination. Our crafty captors practice a quiet warfare with silent weapons to keep us from realising just how powerful we really are.

They set a standard of beauty that is barely attainable even by white people so that you consider yourself ugly, they placed us in an educational system biased toward a left brained, pattern recognition, sequential logic interpretation of intelligence that white people excel in and away from the right-brained, intuitive, creative intelligence that characterises the Negro so that the latter are classed as intellectually deficient, the television and mass media portray us as criminals, ineffectual sidekicks or buffoonish caricatures.

John Calhoun's and Dr. James Hill's Rat Experiments in the 1960's, Funded by Rockefeller Foundation and the National Institute of Mental Health, placed thousands of rats into a confined habitat with limited resources and showed how even these social creatures would turn on and kill each other until none remained, this became the template for inner cities, ghettos, projects and housing estates that our people are forced into. Alcohol, drugs and often guns are made freely available to accelerate the process. Abortion clinics, vaccines and so-called healthcare, as well as the school to prison pipeline complete the arsenal of quiet weapons in this silent genocide. (Margaret Sanger's Planned Parenthood alone accounts for 15 million black deaths since 1973) The methods may have changed but the intent remains the same as in the days of Pharaoh.

However, the most powerful psychological weapon that has been used against our people is Religion. We are, and always have been, a deeply spiritual people, perhaps because at some level we know that we once had a direct line of communication with the Most High creator of all things. Our enemies have exploited our spiritual nature by forcibly inducting us into religions. All religions were created for you to lead you to idolatry and worshipping false gods and demons because as the books of Joshua and Maccabees attest, when the Most High is with us, nothing can stand in our way, but when the Most High turns his back on us we are defenceless. By adding to the Book of Remembrance, our cunning enemy created a new god in his own image that instructed his followers to accept their enslavement, love their enemy, do not fight back, turn the other cheek, serve your master as you would serve the new Christ-god, expect your reward in the next life, and most importantly it teaches that the only way to the father is through the son, so that the Christian praises, worships and prays to the Most High through Jesus unaware that they are engaging in idolatry and breaking the first two commandments. If that were not enough, your enemy has also embedded you in a society where the activities prohibited by the laws statutes and commandments of the Most High are not only legalised but actively encouraged. One need only switch on the television to see a group of professional liars, screen and television "idols", demonstrating how easy it is to break the commandments without consequences.

The Book of Remembrance tells that while in captivity we would worship idols of wood and stone, it is then no coincidence that the two religions that have ensnared our people make idols of a wooden cross and a black stone. You do not have a religion, you have a way of life. You do not belong in a religion... Get Out!

The Book of Remembrance is not just about the past. This current period of enslavement, which started with the transatlantic slave trade, began in 1619 which means that the end of the four hundred years of slavery and affliction is 2019.

The end of slavery approaches, but there are things that we as the children of Israel need to do to be right with our creator, because only a remnant shall return to the land promised to our fathers, the rest will be too caught up in this satanic society and its pagan ways, and will never let go of their false gods and so will be dealt with as harshly as the oppressors.

What do we need to do?

The first thing that we need to do regarding our enemies, is absolutely nothing at all.

You do not need to hate or judge the white man, that is the prerogative of the Most High himself, and now that we are nearing the end of our captivity we find that the Most High is already dealing with the situation. The white populations worldwide have already collapsed beyond the point of no return, the drugs that were created to confound and ensnare our people have now reached epidemic proportions among white people, and suicides within the same demographic are at an all-time high. We need not do anything to these people, but we must endure the white elite class's attempts to take us with them as they spiral into extinction.

There are however, several things that are critical to be right with our creator at these, the end of days.

Repent.

This is absolutely the most important thing we need to do. Now, I always thought that repenting meant becoming all religious, but it simply means to turn away from evil and back to the laws, statutes and commandments of the Most High. We must acknowledge where we have broken the commandments, ask forgiveness from our Creator, remove ourselves from this evil society as much as possible and follow his commandments.

Do not fear any man or any thing in this physical world, so long as you are living righteously according to the Most High then no evil will befall you in this earthly realm. The only one you need fear is the Most High himself, if you disobey and continue in the evil ways of this satanic society.

Read the Book of Remembrance

The Book of Remembrance is your book, written by your ancestors specifically for you to remember who you are. In addition to the 39 books of the so-called 'Old Testament' are the 14 books of the Apocrypha that were included in the original King James 1611 Bible as well as the Books of Enoch, Jasher and Jubilees which were discovered as part of the Dead Sea Scrolls in 1947.

You are living in the most important time in the whole of history, and most of the Book of Remembrance is devoted to what happens to us in these "Latter Days" to the point where you can almost open up your Bible and tick off the events as they come to pass in the newspaper. This book is your guide to a righteous life and the reassurance that you are still in a covenant with the Most High creator of the universe.

Every trick, snare and wicked device that your enemies will use against you will be detailed in this book, and every situation that you might find yourself in, at this critical time, you will find the wisdom to deal with it appropriately in this book, for it is written:

Ecclesiastes 1:9 "The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun."

Remember where you are

No matter how comfortable you might think your life is, remember that you are a prisoner of war in the land of your enemy. Prisoners of war do not fight among themselves, they work together and support each other for their mutual survival. No matter how friendly or benign the guards or prison workers appear to be, never forget that, whether they are aware of it or not, they are contributing to your captivity and oppression while enjoying the benefits afforded by the structure of inequality that they are working to maintain. Just as in similar scenarios from WWII, our clever captors have recruited some of our fellow prisoners as collaborators who receive preferential treatment in return for keeping the rest of us behaving in the interests of the prison system.

Teach others

Take what you have learned and teach others, especially our children. Teach them who they really are, proud members of a special nation of people held captive under cruel and unusual psychological oppression. Teach them to disregard the trappings of this satanic world system, that the toys and trinkets of materialism are meaningless, the allure of celebrity an illusion, the happiness and fulfilment which one assumes accompanies wealth is non-existent.

Teach others, by your example, how to live according to the laws, statutes and commandments of our creator.

Be ready

As we move closer to the end of our captivity, we can expect an increasingly frenzied response from the wicked controllers of the world. If your eyes are open, you should already be noticing the rising number of staged Islamic 'terrorist attacks' each apparently perpetrated by Black people, you should also have noted the escalation in progressively brutal attacks and murders of Black men, women and children by the Police in America, as if looking for that one event that will kindle the fire of open rebellion in the Black population.

In Britain, the same goal is being achieved economically. With Black people inhabiting the lowest economic strata, they are the first affected by rising unemployment, zero-hour contracts, rising prices, the dismantling of state benefits and arbitrary taxes (such as the bedroom tax). Other such "austerity" measures are being dreamed up and implemented all the time, as well as the criminalisation of poverty and homelessness and it all seems aimed at squeezing the population to breaking point. In any case, both countries are ready with their heavily militarised police forces waiting for the moment that they can implement the pre-planned internment and extermination operations.

Clean up your temple, that is, stop poisoning yourself with their toxic foods, snacks and treats, change your diet to that of mainly fruit, nuts and light leafy green salads. Stop drinking processed carton 'juices', fizzy drinks and squashes and drink distilled water or juice that you have squeezed yourself instead.

Give up the state sanctioned addictions such as alcohol, tobacco, sugar, coffee, cannabis, pornography and pharmaceutical drugs, they all exist to weaken you and keep you physiologically and psychologically dependant.

Once your mind, body and spirit is clean and your lifestyle is a healthy one, you will be stronger and fitter, your mind will clear, your intuition or your connection with the most High will be enhanced, you will be less affected by outside malevolent influences and your life will feel easier, and you will be ready to face whatever challenges you may encounter.

Set yourself and your family apart from this society. Your job is not important, nor is money, examination results, the latest car, football, politics, television, celebrities, clothes, holidays etc. etc. etc. None of it matters, it is all there to distract you away from your true identity and your destiny as a beloved child of the Creator of the universe and it is time for you to step up, in fact, the whole earth is desperately waiting for you to take your rightful place as the Most High's ambassador and custodian of the beautiful green Earth that he created for you.

Help and support your family

Do whatever you can to help your brothers and sisters, even if it is only saying hello to them as you pass on the street to show that you have noticed them, acknowledged them as your family and stand ready to help them if they need it.

We inhabit the lowest social strata of society, performing the menial tasks, take time out to speak to them even if it's the man who cleans the toilets or empties the rubbish bins, show your family that you care and appreciate them, you will be surprised how much such a simple act can lift a person's spirit.

If through the work that you can do, you can help or ease the burden of your family then do it and let them know how to pay it forward.

Just recently I was trudging along a street in New Mexico in the blazing mid-day heat, I was sweating profusely and dehydrated but I still had 3 miles to walk while carrying a heavy bag. Out of the blue an empty bus stopped next to me and my brother, the driver, asked me if I needed a ride, it was a simple act of kindness on the part of this stranger, but I was very grateful to complete the remainder of my journey in air-conditioned comfort.

If you are blessed with an abundance of money then you did not get it so that you can buy yourself the latest iPhone, if your eyes are open you will see an opportunity to share with your family and help them.

Don't give your money to the Church corporations or the organised charity corporations, the money never goes where you'd like to believe it does, instead reach out and help your own family.

We are all in this together!
